Witnesses

Dust jacket says
"In that time he has interviewed in depth virtually every person here and abroad who had anything to do with the case." (If no conspiracy, who abroad had to do with the case?)

Did he interview
Bertie Reeves
Bessie Brewer
Charles Stephens
Fracie Stephens
Lloyd Jowers
cab driver (indexed testimony of)
record-store man.
Julius Graham
Barnell Finley

Bonebrake
Frazier

261 "Take the state's witnesses - three hundred or more." How many in Memphis, where the non-conspiracy, you say, crime was committee? How many from there? You heard prosecutor Dwyer say at most 10. What purpose do the other 290 serve except to make a proper defense impossible, what can they contribute to a jury considering a Memphis murder?